Betty Todd Is Queen

Bob Turner and Bob Elsminger, Who Worked Out Plans, Hope It
Will Become Tradition.

An attempt to start a new tradition on this campus has been made. At a pep rally held Thursday night, January 9, nominations for a Basketball Queen were made and Miss Betty Todd was then selected Queen of Basketball for the 1940-41 season at the game last Friday night.

The Student Senate was in charge of the pep meeting, which was well attended by students of the College. Those who were nominated at the meeting Thursday are: Patricia Farris, a freshman from Savannah, Georgia; Barbara Leet, a sophomore from Maryville; Evelyn Oyerly, also a sophomore, who comes from Mound City; and Violeta Weems, a second freshman, who is from Dickson, Tennessee. These first four nominees were selected from the eight nominees to serve as the attendants of the queen.

Others who were nominated are Betty Utter, sophomore, Maryville; Judy Atterbury, junior, St. Joseph; and Belvidene Crain, freshman, Barnard.

The selection of the queen and her attendants was made by the students present at the game Friday night. Ballots were distributed before play began and were counted during the first half of the game by a committee appointed by the Student Senate. Miss Todd was presented by Bob Turner, Student Senate president. The seven nominees and the queen received corsages from the Student Senate and were applauded vigorously by the audience.

Coach Stalcup stated that he thought that having a basketball queen was a very good idea.

Much credit for this enterprise is due Robert Elsminger and Robert Turner, who worked on plans for the establishment of this as a tradition which it is hoped will be continued.

The Rickenbrodes Travel

Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode, Business Manager of the College, and Mrs. Rickenbrode, left January 14 for a three months' vacation. They plan to spend a few days in Excelsior Springs before going south. They will spend some time in New Orleans and although their plans are not definite, they will go either to Florida or to Phoenix, Arizona.

Exhibit Features
Period Furniture

Material Displayed Is From Missouri Museum W.P.A.
Project.

Illustrations of period furniture are featured in the exhibit recently placed on fourth floor. The material in the display is from the Missouri Museum and Visual Education Project of the W. P. A.

The majority of the various styles are shown by a plate consisting of several views of a chair of that period, and in addition, detail of the characteristic motif has been added.

The originals of the Queen Anne and Hepplewhite chairs are a part of the William Rockhill Nelson Collection in Kansas City. A Queen Anne highboy and a chair of the Hepplewhite style are included.

One of the most interesting is the plate containing illustrations of Early American Children's Furniture. Pictured are an Oak cradle dating from 1625 to 1675, a maple high chair, and a Windsor high chair. Illustrated on the Pilgrim plates are a Carver chair, Connecticut armchair, Wainscot chair, a chest-on-a-frame, and Trumpet and Spanish foot highboys.

Paul Revere, remembered by history students for his famous ride, was also well-known as a silversmith. One plate is devoted to Paul Revere silver.

Examples of the Duncan Phyfe, Sheraton, and Chippendale styles are to be seen in the exhibit. Everyone is invited to see these illustrations and a special invitation is extended to students of the Horace Mann School.

Music Head Gives
Contest Information

Spring Contest Bulletin
Has Been Unavoidably
Delayed.

Dr. Reven DeJarnette announces that a number of persons are making inquiry relative to music contests in the Spring Contests. Since publication of the Bulletin of 1941 of inter-scholastic events has been unavoidably held up, Dr. DeJarnette would like to advise those who have inquired as follows: Music directors will make their own selections, governed by the following regulations:

1. Music for bands, orchestra, chorus, and glee clubs must be chosen from the 1941 edition of the "School Music Competition Festival" bulletin. Any material listed in the bulletin for Class C, D, or E bands or orchestra will be acceptable for Class C, or Class CO, groups in the district. Class B, groups should select material listed in the Bulletin for Class B. Numbers may be chosen from the selective lists or cumulative lists.

2. Materials for all other groups and for solos should be selected from various lists in the Bulletin. Cumulative lists and training lists are acceptable. For exceptions, write Dr. Reven S. DeJarnette, State Teachers College, Maryville, Missouri.

3. Numbers for mixed quartet or octet should be chosen from lists for mixed chorus; male quartet, from lists for male chorus; girls' ensembles, from lists for female chorus.

4. The 1941 School Music Competition-Festivals Bulletin may be seen at any large music store or may be ordered from the Music Educators National Conference, 64 East Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois (Price 50 cents).

Three Complete CPT

Three students have completed their training for the Primary Unit of the C. P. T. course. They are Tommy Frederichs of Fairfax, Stanley Miller of Bolckow, and Wayne Taylor of Mound City.

Bearcat Basket Ball Queen

Betty Todd, a member of the sophomore class and of the Green and White Peppers, pep organization, was crowned Queen of Basketball at the Maryville-Rolla game last Friday night. Her attendants were Patty Farris, Dorey Weems, Evelyn Orley and Barbara Leet.

President Lamkin Tells
Danger of Class Cuts

"Any student who is absent without approval from the last class before a vacation period or from the first class after the vacation period may receive negative credit, possibly one-fourth to one-half hour for such absence," said President Lamkin in commenting on violations of the absence rule as quoted in the catalog.

"One full hour of credit would be required to make up such a deduction of credit hours," the President has said. Flagrant violations of this rule will prove costly to those involved.

Guest Speakers Are Available for Conference

The guest speakers who will take part in the program of Religious Emphasis Week will be available for individual conferences or conferences with small groups during the afternoons. The committee would like to encourage organizations or groups to entertain these speakers for meals.

Writer Since 1935.

June Humphrey of Albany, a freshman in the College, has received a letter from a correspondent in South Wales. Her name is Maurine Foster. She and Miss Humphrey have been corresponding since 1935. The letter, offering some interesting side-lights on the war, is printed in part:

"I expect you are waiting to hear something of the war. Well, so far it has affected us very little, so we are lucky. Everyone is playing up marvellously, nearly every town has its 'Spitfire Fund' or 'War Weapons Week'. You really would wonder where the money comes from. Big gifts of thousands of pounds and little gifts of pence come rolling into the funds every day. Some gifts are very large and come from (Continued on page 2)

Committees on Religious Emphasis, Composed of Students and Faculty, Collaborate to Make Week Most Successful in History

Eminent Persons Will Participate in Work

It is doubtful that the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College has ever entertained a group of people of more eminence in their particular profession and activities than those who will conduct Religious Emphasis Week here on the campus January 20 to January 22 inclusive.

Heading the group as the main speaker is Mr. Paul Weaver, professor of Philosophy at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri. Mr. Weaver is a graduate of Yale University, of the Divinity School and the Department of Philosophy. He is teacher of the Burrall Bible Class which enrolls 3,000 students, with a daily attendance of 1,000.

The character sketch written by students in his interest group at the Hollister Student Conference in 1935 for the Conference issue of The Atom gives more insight into his personality than do the facts of his life: "The reason for his popularity is his human interest, frankness, and sympathy with young people, his sparkling, vivacious, and forceful personality. He is recognized for his athletic participation, his continual hurry, a green automobile and a black mustache. He is a young man who clicks with intellect, who is full of fun and enthusiasm, and who inspires those about him with his fine ideas. His philosophy is based on human values. He believes in the full development of the personality—physical, mental, spiritual, and in the full integration of the individual personality in his relationship to the world."

Mr. Arno J. Haack is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, who served for 5 years as Public Relations Director of the St. Louis Y. M. C. A., during which time he has had wide experience with newspaper and radio activities. He is now executive secretary of the Washington University Y. M. C. A., and is chairman of the administration committee of the Southwest Council of Student Christian Associations. He has worked actively with a large number of St. Louis social, religious and civic organizations, including the Metropolitan Church Federation, the Social Planning Council, the Peace Council of Greater St. Louis, and the St. Louis Civil Liberties Committee.

He is a member of the American College Personnel Association, which is a national vocational guidance association. He is a member of the Alpha Kappa Lambda social fraternity, Alpha Kappa Delta, honorary sociological fraternity, and Omicron Delta Kappa, senior men's honorary fraternity. His church activities include memberships on the board of deacons and Sunday School superintendents of the Second Baptist Church. He is also a member of the Young Peoples' Commission on the Madeira Sunday School Council.

Miss Marie Shaver is a member of the staff of the American Youth Foundation and one of the directors of the Foundation summer camp of Shelby, Michigan. She has travelled widely in the Midwest, working with the churches and inter-denominational bodies in leadership training programs for youth activities. She is a most attractive person and a (Continued on page 2)

Horace Mann Seniors
Give Three Act Play

The Senior Class of Horace Mann High School presented "The Ready-Made Family", a three-act comedy, in the College Auditorium at 8:00 p. m., January 16, 1941.

Aunt Lydia, played by Vivian Fink, is very much upset over the marriage of Agnes Martin, played by Ola Mae Lincoln, and Henry Turner, played by Luther Townsend. Henry's children, Marjorie Mitchell and James Carter, plan to annoy Agnes so much she will have the marriage annulled. This policy is also adopted by Agnes's children, Laura Greenwood, Iota Westcott, and Raymond Evans. The Negro maid and colored handy man, played by Roma Walden and Criss Roach, are shocked when they see James having a fit and a ghost warning Henry to leave.

Miss Virginia Thomas, a senior at the State Teachers College, directed the play.

Dr. Horsfall Finds
Confederate Money

Puts Money and Others of
His Civil War Relics on Display at Library.

How would you like to find a stack of bills in an old trunk in your attic? The collection of confederate relics now on display in the case on the first floor of the library includes about five hundred dollars in confederate currency. This money is all in bills of ten dollar denominations and is part of the accumulation of interesting moments of Civil War days found by Dr. Frank Horsfall in an old trunk at his home in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, some years ago.

Besides this confederate currency Dr. Horsfall also found many interesting text books, several of which were published prior to 1850. Included in the display at the Library is a copy of an army pass signed by a brigadier general. This pass was issued to Mr. B. F. Richardson who was a doctor at that time, Dr. Horsfall said.

Also included in this collection is a death notice sent by a committee of invitation to this same Mr. Richardson, informing him of the death of Ex-President Andrew Johnson and expressing the desire that he be present at the ceremonies of commemoration held in Nashville, Tennessee, October 2, 1875.

Other things of interest in this collection include two receipts for destroying cotton. These were to show that a certain specified amount of confederate cotton had been destroyed in order to prevent the Union Army from seizing it.

Potential Aviators
Hear About Courses

"An earnest and keen desire to fly," was given by Captain Edward G. Schultz of the local CPT airport, as the first requirement for potential aviators. Captain Schultz made this statement at a meeting held in Social Hall last Thursday for students who are interested in taking the CPT course.

Mr. Norvel Saylor explained the course saying that, fundamentally, it is a vocational education program sponsored by the Federal Government. It is a standardized flying course and is offered three times a year on a semester basis. Both primary and secondary units are offered.

The primary unit, Mr. Saylor explained, is composed of four stages. Stage A consists of eight hours of dual instruction, usually lasting from ten to fifteen days. After the eight hours of dual flying the student takes the never-to-be-forgotten solo flight. Stage B is solo flying and is followed by precision maneuvers in Stage C. The culmination of Stage D is the three hours of cross-country flight.

In the course starting February first, ninety hours of ground school are required. The work of the ground school is divided as follows: twenty-four hours of meteorology, twenty-four hours of navigation, eleven hours of civil air regulations, and eighteen hours of air path operation.

After the student has completed from thirty-five to forty-five hours of flight instruction and ninety hours of ground school, he or she is eligible for a private pilot's certificate which entitles one to fly any plane of the same weight class as that in which training was received. Light planes of less than 1300 pounds in weight are used in the primary unit. Two light weight Porterfields were recently purchased for use in the primary unit at the local airport.

Upon completion of the primary unit the student is eligible to apply for the secondary unit. At the end of this unit the student is permitted to fly a 225 horsepower ship in contrast to the 65 horsepower of the primary. One hundred twenty-six hours of ground school are required. The qualifications for entrance into the primary unit are as follows: (Continued on page 2)

It makes it possible for teachers to borrow money to finance summer school attendance, to meet emergencies which may arise, to do graduate study, to complete work for a degree. It is a service to teachers of Northwest Missouri. Membership is open to any teacher holding a certificate to teach.

The Credit Union had at the close of the year a total membership of 440; assets totaling $28,082.61 were listed. During the year, 1940, 350 borrowers received a total of $23,672.35 in loans.

Otis Thorburn, G. Frank Smith, Hugh K. Graham, J. A. Bell, and Dean J. W. Jones were elected members of the board of directors for three year terms.

The meeting Saturday confirmed the act of the board of directors who selected Dr. Blanche H. Dow and H. R. McCall as members of the board by mail vote.

School's Part in

Mr. Ed R. Adams Tells
Part Schools Are to Play in Defense.

About 65 high school superintendents from five counties of Northwest Missouri attended a meeting at Maryville High School on Saturday, January 11. The meeting was called by Mr. Lloyd W. King, State Superintendent of Schools, and State Director of Vocational Education for the purpose of explanation of Missouri's Program of Vocational Education for National Defense. Mr. Ed R. Adams, Northwest Missouri State High School Supervisor, conducted the meeting, and explained the part the public high schools are to have in vocational education for national defense.

Classes are to be organized in the various school districts to train youths in occupations necessary for National Defense. The classes will be in courses supplementary to employment, pre-employment refresher courses, and Specific Pre-employment Preparatory Courses. The instructors are to be the most able workmen and citizens available who have had 4 years' experience in their lines of work, beyond the learners' stage, and who are able to impart their knowledge to others. Facilities to be used are those of the local high schools which offer vocational training in any of the specified lines of work which are essential to national defense. WE CAN DO IT AGAIN

"Maryville Bearcats Win M. I. A. A. Conference Title in Basketball"—this headline appeared in the February 23 edition of the Northwest Missourian last year. It was one of the biggest headlines ever used on the sport page. A week later came the announcement that the AP had selected Hull and Hackett on the M. I. A. A. All Star team and Don Johnson and Hutcheson on the second team. Harold Hull was second in the conference in scoring with 86 points and Captain Dale Hackett was third with 84.

Will we be entitled to use this headline again this year? Can we say that we have placed 4 men on the all star teams? The responsibility of retaining our title this year is not entirely up to the team and their coaches. The support of students counts greatly with the team. With three of our all-star men back with the squad and plenty of other excellent material and with the support of the students and towns people the prospects are bright for another Conference crown.

Incidentally a book that hasn't left the Duquesne library for two years is "College and Life." The students apparently have been too busy making college life to bother reading about it.—Not so with Maryville.

Beginning Orchestra Under Way

A beginning orchestra has been organized by Miss Jacinta Kampfer. The organization is for any college student who would like to participate in a musical organization. The orchestra attendance shows an increasing interest among the students.

From the Dean

"The bureau (employer) expects all employees to work hard and each employee is required to put in an hour a day overtime, but the job is worth it."

Here is a quotation from a former student of this College. He is required by his employer "to work hard" and "to put in an hour a day overtime." May I suggest that in the daily task of going to college there is an opportunity for each student to acquire habits of working hard and working overtime. Lessons are important and the habit of succeeding in them is worthy of the effort required to attain it.

"But the job is worth it."

Too Many Senators

One class has five members on the Student Senate! Excitement! A new election!

Corruption? Not at all! The story is this:

It seems that when asked, Jack Hawkins said that he was a one-term senator rather than a two term senator—which was really the case. As a result, Bob Turner instructed the Sophomore class to elect two senators when they should have elected only one. Therefore, to clear up the matter the Student Senate declared that the election was irregular and that a new one is to be held.

In the elections that were held the week before Christmas vacation, the number of people that voted in each class was appallingly small. Of the 65 in the Senior class, approximately 13 voted; of the 117 in the Junior class, only 51 voted; of the 235 in the Sophomore class, only 40 voted; and of the 305 in the Freshman class, only 70 voted. The Student Senate expressed the idea that they were greatly disappointed in the lack of interest that the student body showed in the College's student government.

The Bearcats clinched second place in the M. I. A. A. conference race with a 43-19 victory over the Springfield Bears Monday night. After the first half, second and third string men took over the game, which was a complete rout for the Bears.

The administration announced a concert to be given by the famous Welsh Singers, a male ensemble from Britain which has been attracting international attention, at the College Auditorium on February 1. Because of limited seating capacity, the general public was not to be admitted to the concert.

Seventeen College dramatics students travelled to Kirksville this week to present the three-act play, "The Beloved Vagabond" at the Kirksville College. The students reported a fine trip and a warm welcome from the Kirksville students and townspeople. The trip was marred only by a bit of engine trouble.

The College is especially fortunate to have here on next Tuesday morning, Bishop John O. Bromfield, Bishop of the Methodist Church in the State of Missouri. Bishop Bromfield was assigned to this area from the former Methodist Protestant Church when the branches of Methodism united in 1890 at Kansas City. It was possible to secure him because of the fact that he is holding a District Meeting of his

Take It From Me

From the Associated Collegiate Press feature service came a story this week that definitely arouses a protest in the usually quiescent mind of this writer against what appears to be libel, or something of the kind. The ACP says that co-eds are "much less emotional than men students." Name o' howls! How do they get that way? Did you ever see a man shedding copious tears over the fate of a false-front screen heroine, who should have received more than the green story gave her—in public? And—oh, what's the use? There could be a thousand citations of evidence contrary to the ACP feature, but why cite them? The ladies, bless 'em, always get the last word in an argument, anyway.

To return briefly to the subject, however, here's what that ACP story had to say. Whether the evidence can be taken literally, or whether you think "it just isn't so" does not matter much—unless you like to argue, and you can certainly start an argument by citing this story: Kent State University tests, if they are accurate, point to the conclusion that co-eds are much less emotional than men students. Two students, a man and woman, were tested by using respiration, blood pressure, and electric changes of the skin as measurements, and the results tabulated after the tests point to the co-eds as having more emotional control than the men.

Tests of the two included the use of various types of music. Artie Shaw's "Night Ride" caused the man's blood pressure to rise, respiration became rapid and shallow, and metabolism heightened. With Ravel's "Bolero," each period of raised tempo brought an increase in the student's body temperature. The young lady in the test showed none of these symptoms. In fact, she never batted an eyelash when Ravel and his trumpet cut loose, a Debussy waltz left her cold as ice, and Artie Shaw made her only "tepid!"

Well, if Artie Shaw couldn't move her, that girl's case is hopeless. She must be a throwback to the last ice age.

Speech instructors, as every student who has taken speech must know, often come up with some ideas (and assignments) that are definitely reminiscent of Robert Ripley. For instance, a Warrensburg student (a girl) was given a subject for an extemporaneous speech—"Heavy Dating versus Good Grades!" What she didn't say in that speech must have been interesting.

At that, there's food for thought in that subject. Everyone has to meet the question of studying for a test or going out on that extra-special date at one time or another. Question is, what to do about it? You're on the spot, one way or the other, no matter what you do.

church in Maryville on that day. He is noted as a challenging and forceful speaker.

It was learned in the last few days that Dr. James Chubb, pastor of the Methodist Church at Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas, would be included on the faculty of next week's program. Dr. Chubb is not a stranger to all of the students, perhaps, for the reason that for several years he has been director of the annual Epworth League Institute at the Methodist Church held at Cameron during the summer. He has achieved much success in youth undertakings in the church. Aside from serving the College Church at Baldwin, he also is an instructor in Baker University.

An 8,000,000-volt atom-smashing machine is under construction at the University of Notre Dame.

The University of Georgia is adding a course in Portuguese.

Members of the NXA Resident Training group who have discontinued their training careers here are LeRoy Williams, Vernon Shaffer, and Carl Remy. The Stroller...

The Stroller has heard various comments in regard to the afternoon bridge club which has been "organized" (?) on the front porch of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity house. He wonders if they need another "fourth."

How did Dick Moyer happen to turn up at 221 West Seventh Saturday morning in search of Ralph Remy? Ralph really should give his friends his correct address—or could it be that he does spend most of his time at the house next door?

From what she sees, the Stroller believes that competition is going to be the downfall of Bob Eisinger's bid for the hand and heart of Jean Zimmerman. This is just a supposition of course.

It seems Hattie Houp's enthusiasm got ahead of her last week-end at one of the basketball games when one of the players crumpled to the floor from the hearty back-slap of Hattie's congratulating him for playing a fine game.

Mr. Geiger should be proud of his band after their fine showing at the ball game last Saturday night. Such a turn-out of players probably will never again be equaled.

The Stroller is unable to tell whether Dick Stephenson is just kidding her now or if he really intends to stick with his girl friend at the present.

Quad Highlights

The NYA boys have taken mostly to boots and old clothing the latter part of this week, because of the muddy and wet conditions of the College campus. Weather conditions have permitted little progress on the two new buildings which are in the making on the campus.

Mr. S. F. Simerly has begun the process of slaughtering, to provide meat for the members of the two dormitory kitchens. He butchers a quota of about six hogs a week. The animals for slaughtering are provided by the College farm.

Mrs. Simerly is still continuing with her painting. She has turned out several paintings within the last few months, and has contributed several to the lobby of the dormitory in which the Simerlys have their apartment.

Superintendent Wilson of the Resident Training group has appointed Elmer Hawk of the Quad to aid with the caring for the boys who become ill while on the project and are placed in the Quad hospital. Many of the boys have become ill the last week with colds, among them are Donald Israel, Archie Blackmer, Arthur Wright, and Hubert Brady. Charles Snook has also been unable to work part of this week because of an injured hand, which he hurt while working with sheet metal in the machine shop.

LeRoy McQuarry from Mound City has gone to his home because of illness of his father, and Carl Anno, who has been troubled with a paralysis of the right side of his face and body, has gone home.

A group of boys from the dormitories went to the hospital Saturday of last week and had tests made of their blood. They were doing this in the interest of Marcia Tyson, who has been given several blood transfusions at the hospital the last few days. There were six members in the party from the dormitories, along with J. B. Lyman, and Turner Tyson, a brother of the girl who is ill.

The morning working group at the wood shop have been working on three cafeteria tables which came from the Quad Mess Hall and when finished will be put, one in each of the lobbies of the three dormitories. They will be used as library tables to be placed in the middle of the rooms. Others of the wood shop group have been doing work on floor lamps and different kinds of book racks and other wood projects.

Members of Mr. Simerly's work group have been doing some cleaning on the campus and some work on trees.

The members of the machine shop work group have begun the construction of galvanized iron buckets.

Some of the transfers and promotions have taken place among the Resident Training students this week. James Ivall Nally, who previously worked in the group of campus boys headed by Mr. Simerly, has gone to the machine and metal shop. Nally with Robert Kalso are the only two boys from Maryville on the project. Other students given promotions by Dean Jones to the machine and metal shop are: Hubert Brady and Glenn Andrews.

Members of the NXA Resident Training group who have discontinued their training careers here are LeRoy Williams, Vernon Shaffer, and Carl Remy. Mr. Williams is planning to aid his father in business at Chillicothe, while Mr. Shaffer spoke of plans to enter the United States Navy. Mr. Remy upon closing his career here did not disclose his plans for the future.

The west dormitory team, captained by William Gamble, was beaten in a game one evening last week by the Blue Devils, an intra-mural team made up of regular College students. The game was played much closer than the score indicates, being 18-24. The South Dormitory team, which is made up of boys from both the East and South dormitories, won a game this week. Carl Gutshall and Wendell Sherman have been playing outstanding games for the West dormitory team.

Bearcats Beat Wichita Third Time; 46 to 23

Harold Hull Makes Ten Free Throws to Take Scoring Honors.

With Harold Hull dropping ten of eleven free throw attempts through the hoop, the Maryville Bearcats added a third Wichita victory scalp to their victory string this year when they defeated them 46 to 23 in a game here Saturday night. In previous engagements the 'Cats won 41 to 15 and 36 to 30.

The 'Cats, after the third field goal dropped through the hoop, took the lead and maintained it throughout. At the half time, the score stood 28 to 10. In the first eight minutes of play, the 'Cats had made 12 points and held Wichita to a single field goal and a free throw.

Wichita played a hard, rough-and-tumble game, had 20 fouls called on them, and broke up several scoring attempts but were the underdogs throughout the game.

Capt. Melvin Vice of Wichita started the scoring when he hit a long set shot. A minute later Don Johnson tied the scoring with a turn and heave shot from the foul line and Walker followed with a tip-in to give the Bearcats the lead. Hull hit a free throw. Walker hit a set shot. Calhoun got a free throw for Wichita. Hull hit a one-hander from the foul line. Hull hit two free throws and, fouled again, dropped in another one.

Jenkins hit a one-hander for Wichita and Hull followed with a duplicate of the shot and got another free throw. Kinkaid hit a one-hander for Wichita. Johnson hit a free throw.

Capt. Vice hit a free throw for Wichita and Capt. Salmon also hit a free throw. Hutcherson got a long two-handed shot and followed with a one-hander from the same spot after getting the ball on Hicks' pass. Johnson hit a one-hander. Vice hit a one-hander. Hicks tallied with a set shot from behind the foul circle and Schottel scored one-handed on a pass from Alpert. Capt. Salmon ended the half with a free throw.

In the second half, Walker took Hicks' pass for a one-handed counter and Vice got a tip-in. Alpert hit two free throws. Kinkaid stole the ball for a setup. Hutcherson got a tip-in and Walker hit a free throw. Kinkaid tallied with a set shot and followed with a tip-in.

Hull hit two free throws. Hutcherson hit a long set shot and followed with a free throw. Johnson tallied with a one-handed shot and Hull plunked two more free throws through. Jenkins hit a free throw and McDonald scored the final Wichita point on a free throw.

Maryville Bearcats Will Meet Ichabods Here Tomorrow Night

Maryville Beats Bulldogs 36-35

Bearcats Stage Last Half Rally to Win Second MIAA Game.

Kirkville, Mo. —(AP)— This town was recovering today from a severe ice storm and a one-point defeat of the Kirkville Teachers College basketball team.

In the wake of the storm, Maryville blew in last night and beat Kirkville's Bulldogs 36 to 35, dropping them from a first-place tie in the MIAA standings. The game was so close the team's scoring stars—Hull of Maryville and Shoes of Kirkville—tied for high-point honors with 15 each.

Both clubs had whipped the Rolla Miners previously. Maryville, conference champions, now shares the lead with Cape Girardeau. Each has two triumphs.

Dean of Faculty Is Speaker on Program

"The Social Preparation of Teachers for Community Service" is the subject of a discussion given yesterday afternoon by Dean J. W. Jones before the Department of Superintendents of the Missouri Teachers Association at its twenty-eighth annual meeting. The meeting was held in Columbia yesterday and is continuing today.

Among those from the College who are attending the meeting, besides Dean Jones, are President Uel W. Lamkin and Mr. Homer T. Phillips, head of the education department.

This meeting is considered one of the important meetings of the state. An attendance of some five or six hundred was expected. The two main objectives to be discussed at business sessions were "A Statewide Activities Association" and "A Single State Certification Agency" with a broad grant of power. The theme of the meeting is "Mutual Problems of Defense and Public Education."

Bearcats Win Tournament Washburn Lost First Game

Tomorrow night the Bearcats meet the Washburn College cagers from Topeka for the first time this season. The game will be played on the home court.

Both teams were in the Sunflower Tournament, held at Washburn during the Christmas vacation, Washburn losing out in the first round.

According to Coach Wilbur Stalcup, the Ichabods are a fine ball club. They were slow in starting but have recently defeated St. Louis University and Washington University, which proves that the Bearcats' opponents are a fighting team.

In the 1939-40 Missouri Valley Conference standings Washburn ranked fourth, breaking even with a record of six wins and six losses.

Bearcats Open M. I. A. A. With 33-25 Victory

Maryville Was Badly Off
Form in Newly Remodeled
Gymnasium.

Although the Bearcats seemed rather uncertain of themselves and did not play the game of basketball they had been showing the spe- aged to work through to a 33-25 tators the week before, they man- victory over Rolla last Friday night in the M. I. A. A. opener for the locals.

It may have been the new back- boards, and the repainted court, or it may have been that they were jittery over holding the M. I. A. A. crown, but probably it was just one of those "off" nights which all good ball teams have, that caused them to have such a laborious time in winning.

The Miners' defense was not up to the par of some of the Bearcats' recent opponents, nor did their offense run up an insurmountable score; yet the Bearcats came out with only an 8 point margin.

In the opening minutes of the game both teams were like two prize fighters, feeling each other out to see how much punch they were going to have to take. Finally Hutcheson opened the scoring with a tip-in shot. Rolla got a basket. Maryville a free throw, and then the Miner's got 4 more points to put them ahead 6-3; but the lead was soon overcome by Salmon, Hutcheson, and Don Johnson, who each scored a bucket.

The game went on thus till the half, Maryville with a slight margin and considerable fumbling, walking, and bad shooting. Playing time was interrupted often for substitutions by both coaches and for a total of 14 free-throws. In the last few seconds of the half, Maryville at- tempted to bring a long pass down the court for a basket to build up a safer margin, but the ball went out of bounds and the period ended 15-12 in favor of the locals.

The same five who started the game for Maryville returned to the court after the half. The Bearcats took the ball on the tip-off, and Don Johnson passed the ball to Eddie Johnson, who made the shot. A bucket apiece by Hull, Hutcheson, and Don Johnson built up Maryville's lead until at the 10 minute mark they were ahead 25-16. Hutcheson was doing a nice job of taking the rebounds from the op- ponents' backboard. Bruce, Rolla guard, was helping the Miners keep up their side of the score by drop- ping in an occasional semi-long shot. He and Main were the only ones who scored for Rolla from the field in the last half. Both coaches made several substitutions in the last few minutes. Several fouls were called and Hutcheson and Don Johnson fouled out of the game. In the midst of the con- fusion Captain Jack Salmon, dark horse of the Sunflower tournament, dropped in a one-hand shot, and two Rolla men converted free- throws to end the game.
